

JOB TITLE: Broadcast Journalist

Employer: United Christian Broadcasters Limited

Reporting to: News & Current Affairs Editor

Location: United Christian Broadcasters Limited, Broadcasting Centre, Hanchurch Lane, Stoke-on-Trent ST4 8RY

Hours: Full time, 36.25 hours per week
Flexibility of hours will be required (that may include some weekend working in the future)

Main Purpose of the Job:

To be part of the UCB news team responsible for researching, recording and presenting news content across a variety of UCB platforms.

Position in Organisation:

Reports to News & Current Affairs Editor

Works closely with the Broadcast Journalists, Current Affairs Producers and Programme Presenters

Duties and Key Responsibilities:

- Ensure UCB news and current affairs content is consistent with UCB policies, of broadcasting practice, OFCOM regulations and with UK broadcast law
- Report on the day's news across UCB's platforms ensuring this is in line with UCB's Vision, Mission, Values and Strategic goals & objectives
- Have knowledge of relevant audiences and be aware of the cultural and other sensitivities including religious, political, social and community issues.
- Research, write/script, edit and present news content for radio, online, the app, social media and podcasts
- Responsible for producing and presenting:
 - Live / pre-recorded daily news bulletins and half hour headlines
 - Live / pre-recorded daily news features (e.g. interviews, radio packages, voice pieces or two-ways with presenters)
 - Recorded news interviews and clips for bulletins
- Responsible for arranging and scheduling interviews to record and edit for imminent broadcast deadlines alongside other on-air duties, e.g. bulletins
- Contribute creative and original news and current affairs ideas to the team
- Be available to prepare and carry out an on-air shift as it appears on the rota
- Be able to participate in outside broadcasts, as well as recording news items and interviews from external locations
- Be experienced in operating broadcasting equipment, including portable recording equipment
- Be able to interface with other UCB departments to assist cross-functional communication and co-operation
- Be available for the voicing of radio station content, e.g. spots
- Undertake training (in-house or external) as required to improve skills

- Be alert to testimonies or impact stories from UCB readers, listeners and supporters, forwarding them to the Testimony Lead
- Support all of UCB's fundraising activities and events - whether in prayer and/or directly in participation
- Attend team and staff meetings as required
- To complete other duties that are reasonable and within your capabilities, as requested by your team leader

Qualifications, Knowledge, Experience and Skills:

- Appropriate qualification in journalism or relevant media degree or be able to demonstrate equivalent experience
- GCSE English and Maths (Grades A-C) or equivalent
- Previous experience of radio broadcasting
- Strong communication skills both written and oral
- Ability to write creatively in an engaging manner, adapt, produce and translate with accuracy, clarity and style appropriate to the UCB audience
- The flexibility and adaptability to sustain performance, particularly under pressure to meet multiple deadlines and changing priorities and circumstances
- Strong research, administration and organisational skills
- Excellent attention to detail and accuracy with strong editing and proof reading skills
- A good understanding of news and current affairs
- To have an understanding of social media and podcasts
- To be able to effectively record and edit with audio editing software (UCB uses Adobe Audition)

Person Specification:

- Be an Ambassador of Christ and advocate for the ministry and work of UCB
- Christian service to UCB and its supporters, ensuring all content for recording or on-air delivery is consistent with UCB's vision
- The commitment to participate in regular prayer time in order to promote team unity
- To be prepared to witness to the life-changing message of Jesus and lead people to Christ as appropriate
- To develop ways of introducing UCB's story in a manner that is relevant and engaging.
- Good at building and maintaining professional relationships
- Creativity, resilience, flexibility, reliability, 'can do' approach, initiative, positivity
- Must enjoy working with people, be approachable and work well within a team

Dated: April 2021

This Job Description does not form part of your Contract of Employment.